

CLASS - IV

SUBJECT - E.V.S

ANSWER KEY - CH - 1

A. Match the following columns

- | | | |
|-----------------|-----|---------|
| 1. Earthworm | (a) | skin |
| 2. Fish | (b) | stomata |
| 3. Human beings | (c) | gills |
| 4. Leaves | (d) | nose |

B. Write True or False

1. All living things experience different phases of growth. T
2. All living things reproduce by laying eggs. F
3. Leaves of plants have stomata to breathe. T
4. All living things need water. T

C. Fill in the blanks.

1. Living things get Energy from the food they eat.
2. Oxygen present in air is used by all living things to breathe.
3. Leaves prepare food for plants.
4. Living things that give birth to young ones are called Mammals.
5. Plants breathe through tiny openings called Stomata.

- Answer the following.

Q-1 What are living things ? Give five examples examples.

Ans- The things that are or were alive are called living things.

Ex Tree , Human beings , Fish , Birds, Dog.

Q-2 What are non living living things? Give five examples examples five examples examples.

Ans- The things that were never alive are called Non living things.

Ex Table , Pen , Box , House, Books.

Q-3 What are characteristics of living things?

Ans - characteristics of living things are:-

- 1) All living things need air to stay alive.
- 2) All living things need food.
- 3) All living things grow.

Q-4 Why is air important for all living things?

Ans - Air is important for all living things because it is used by all living things for breathing.

Q-5 How does living things reproduce?

Ans- All living things reproduce by giving birth to their young ones or by laying eggs eggs laying eggs eggs.