

Text Exercise

A. Tell us something about yourself.

1. How many members are there in your family? _____
2. Do your grandparents live with you? _____
3. What is the name of your paternal grandmother? _____
4. Do your cousins live with you? _____
5. Is it a nuclear/joint family? _____

B. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false.

1. The parents of our father are our maternal grandparents.
2. In a nuclear family, only parents and their children live together.
3. Children of the same parents are called siblings.
4. The family members should not share work.
5. Families celebrate special days together.

C. Fill in the blanks.

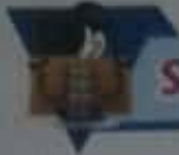

1. Children who do not have parents are called _____.
2. The brother of our father or mother are our _____.
3. The sister of our father or mother are our _____.
4. The parents of our father or mother are our _____.
5. _____ are brothers and sisters.

D. Choose the correct option.

1. Family members _____ each others.
a. help b. hate
2. As children, we should be _____.
a. obedient b. troublesome
3. A single-parent family has _____ parents.
a. two b. one
4. Our mother and father are called our _____.
a. grandparents b. parents

E. Answer the following questions:

1. Name the types of families.
2. Who are foster parents?
3. What is a joint family?
4. What do you understand by a nuclear family?
5. What do you understand by single-parent family?

Subject Enrichment

F. What should be your role as a family member? Write down.

1. Your mother is very tired and not able to continue her work. What would you do?

2. Your grandmother has a bad ache in her legs. What would you do?

3. Your younger sister is unable to do her homework on her own. What would you do?
