

6

Dialogue Writing

 Dialogue means a conversation between two or more persons. Sometimes, you may be asked to write a dialogue on a given topic in your examination. For your help, we are giving here some dialogues on different topics and in simple language. Read them carefully and then try to write such other dialogues yourself.

Some Examples of Dialogues

1. Write a dialogue between you and a guest who has come to your home and asks you some questions related to your name, education, school, age, etc. Imagine you are 'Amit' and your guest is "Uncle".

Ans. Dialogue between Amit and his uncle :

- Uncle — Hello ! What is your good name, dear child ?
Amit — My name is Amit, Uncle Ji.
Uncle — How old are you, dear Amit ?
Amit — I am twelve years old.
Uncle — Which class do you read in ?
Amit — I read in 7th class.
Uncle — Which school do you read in ?
Amit — I read in Pratap Public School.
Uncle — What do you want to be ?
Amit — I want to become an officer in Indian army.

2. Write a dialogue between two persons A and B where A is a teacher and B is a student.

- Ans. A — Is your homework complete ?
B — No, Sir.
A — Why ?
B — Because my mother was ill and I remained busy attending her.

- A — How is she now?
B — She is recovering and is better now.
A — May she get well soon!
B — Thank you, sir.

3. Write a dialogue between A and B at bus stand, talking about time of departure and period of journey etc.

- A — Excuse me, which bus is for Jaipur?
B — Yes, do you see that red bus standing in the corner?
A — Yes, I see.
B — That bus goes to Jaipur.
A — When does it start?
B — It starts at 11:30 a.m.
A — How much time does it take to reach Jaipur?
B — It takes about four hours.
A — Thank you very much.
B — Ok. It's alright.

➡ The same kind of dialogues can be written between :

1. you (A) and book seller (B)
2. you (A) and railway enquiry person (B)
3. you (A) and doctor (B)
4. you (A) and general store keeper (B)

Try to write them and then get them examined from your English teacher.